A NOTE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Cassopolis High school's primary focus is to provide an effective learning experience for all students who attend our school. It is important for us in this quest to pursue a quality education experience for each of our students. From the core academics to the innovative electives and extracurricular programs, CHS offers challenges and opportunities for each student. A collaboration of caring, by parents, staff, families, and community is vital to the success that we wish to attain for each student.

Whether you returned this fall or are joining us as a new student, it is my hope that your 2017-2018 school year begins a great learning experience and enthusiasm for learning. We hope you will find Cassopolis as an ideal environment to advance your educational and personal development. A positive attitude creates positive results.

When you believe in yourself, anything is possible.

Remember, take pride in being – RESPONSIBLE – RESPECTFUL – RESILIENT RANGERS!

Have a positive and rewarding school year!

Respectfully,
David VanLue

Ross Beatty would like to congratulate faculty and staff on their promotions, and welcome new members to our district.
