...And, the No. 1 reason for multi-sport participation . . . To Have Fun; Because You Can!

Opportunities exist for you right now in interscholastic athletics that will never exist in such abundance later in life. There should be no penalty for playing other sports, and there should be no reward for being persuaded to play one sport year-round. If you are feeling pressured by coaches or booster groups to limit yourself to one sport, consult with your principal, athletic director or guidance counselor.

Enjoy all the opportunities your school has to offer.

Encourage Multi-Sport Participation in Your School

High school sport specialization has received a lot of attention recently. School sport participants are pressured into choosing one sport over other sport opportunities that are available. When athletes play a single sport year-round they lack enrichment and experience in participating in other co-curricular activities. Many times single sport-focused athletes find that participation is no longer fun and drop out because of the actions of overzealous coaches and pushy parents.

School sport offers more than what most see, kids playing a game. For families, sport offers a physical place to be together away from work or school. Often – at critical times in their lives – sport offers kids a way to connect with each other and work toward common goals.

For most of us, school sports became a collection of personal moments, a mental album of boys and girls growing into men and women.

Educational athletics help kids find the heroes within and the adults of tomorrow.
